THIRTY THOUSAND WOMEN PICKING HOPS—CURIOUS SCENE IN WISCONSIN.

A Wisconsin paper says:

"Probably in all the history of hop-picking since yeast and lager were invented there has been nothing to compare with the scenes that have been going on in this region, and in Kilbourn city especially, for the last six or eight days. The first of last week the pickers began to come in, and this week there must be at least thirty thousand lively at work picking the hops of the region that ships them at this depot. Wagon loads of from eight to fifteen each have been almost constantly passing through town for the last eight days, generally coming from the North and East, and crossing the river into Sauk county.

The first instalment by cars, some three hundred, came last week, Tuesday evening, Wednesday evening nearly one thousand came. Thursday and Friday evening each five or six hundred. Saturday afternoon probably one thousand persons had collected at the depot to witness the arrival. It was then found that the cars were two hours behind time, and that instead of one train two were coming, with twenty eight cars loaded. When the two hours were up the crowd at the depot had increased; and this, with the acres of two and four horse wagons about the depot, and the music and fun of the merry drivers, formed no small preliminary show of itself. But as the two trains came thundering along, and as they stretched themselves away beyond and away back of the depot and stopped, excitement was on tip toe.

And when two thousand pickers began to pour out of every door of those twenty-eight cars, the scene beat all other Western shows. Cheering, laughing, singing, shouting! Admirable confusion—no disorder.—Sections of tens, platoons of twenties, companies of forties, all officered, moving in every possible direction; corporals guiding their squads; captains giving orders to their companies; marching and countermarching—direct and in echelon—forming camp and breaking camp; armed and equipped with umbrellas, parasols, satchels, baskets, bandboxes, bags, bundles, babies! Teamsters shouting for their loads—rush for the wagons—tumbling in! all formed a scene to beat any army camp or movement! We can't do justice to the subject.

But great as was the display on Saturday evening, it was more than matched on Monday evening! We have no means of knowing exactly how many came on the two trains, but from the best information we can get, we put the number at twenty five hundred! Two hours before the trains arrived, two hundred and forty teams were waiting to take the pickers to their destinations. After the count, teams continued to come in; and when the train arrived there must have been nearly three hundred. Some of the four horse teams take eighteen or twenty, and the average is at least ten.

Truly, hops are king, and in this region thirty thousand queens are waiting on the old fellows.

TROUBLE ANTICIPATED IN FLORIDA—SECRET NEGRO ORGANIZATIONS—PETITIONS TO THE PRESIDENT FOR PROTECTION.—A petition has been sent here from prominent and respectable citizens of Florida, in which it is stated that "We are in a terrible condition here, and God knows what may not happen at any moment. The Legislature passed a bill empowering the Governor to have a detective and secret police body—to such an extent as he deems fit—uncontrolled by any one. With this power he is enabled to raise and arm as many negroes as he pleases, and from what has transpired he has gone to work extensively.

"Besides this he is quietly, through agents, organizing the negro militia, who are drilling on the plantations privately, and have orders to mount mules, &c., and hurry to town at a given signal. The few United States troops we had have been removed to Tampa, Jacksonville, and Augustine, and we are left helpless, with a negro population counting four to one of the whites.

"We never have been alarmists, but really our condition is such that we feel justified in apprehending infinite danger at any moment. Such creatures, armed and headed by very bad white men, and given to know that they are protected by law, will not hesitate at any rascality. You see what our condition is. Our families are at their mercy. If we leave them to concentrate so as to meet the negroes, they may be sufferers before we can come to their assistance. If we stay to defend our households, we are to be cut off in detail.

"Now, more than at any other moment, we need the presence of United States troops, commanded by the right kind of officers, and should have not less than 250 to 300 here, where in twelve hours half the able bodied negroes of the State could be collected."

The petitioners ask that the attention of the President, Gen. Grant, and Secretary Schofield be called to this condition of affairs, and such steps be taken as will secure peace to the citizens of Florida.

AUSTIN, August 31.

The Texas Constitutional Convention adjourned this morning until the first Monday in December. Its organ, the Austin Republican, says: "We are satisfied that every thoughtful and reflecting man in the State, whether loyal or Conservative, will approve this action of the Convention. For three long months this body has wrangled over the spoils, disgraced the capital with numerous fights, and of all its many acts this one alone meets the approbation of reflecting men. Nothing in their life became them like the leaving it. They have published to the world a report on "lawlessness and violence," an infamous tissue of falsehoods, for partisan ends, slandering the people of the State, and preventing immigration. They have sent a committee of two to Washington to secure the passage of a bill arming the blacks against the whites; failing in which, one of them retired to New England, where he now is. They have squandered one hundred thousand dollars of the people's money, and having failed to get the approval of the commanding General to a further appropriation of twenty-five thousand dollars, they have followed the example of Congress, and taken a recess, without having formed a Constitution or accomplished one single purpose for which they assembled. They do not intend that Texas shall be reconstructed unless the negro, armed, shall own the polls, Texas, when once more restored to the Union of our fathers, will have a glorious future before her."

The prospects for abundant crops throughout the State are very encouraging, though owing to the ravages of the army worm but half a crop of cotton will be made.—Correspondence New York Herald.

"LOYAL" GEORGIA.—Early yesterday morning a number of farmers, while on the Augusta road coming to town, and about ten miles distant, were hailed by one of a party of negroes, some two hundred in number. The gentlemen did not rein up immediately, whereupon the negro, who had been walking up and down the road with a double-barrelled gun on his shoulder, assumed the position of a challenging sentinel and ordered them to halt. The party halted and demanded to know the cause. They were informed that the negroes had orders to stop all persons passing along the road and make them contribute bread and whiskey, and if they didn't have the articles must give money, in order that they could be purchased.

The party of gentlemen were well armed, and refused to comply with the demands of the negroes, and they, seeing that the gentlemen were prepared to defend themselves, let them pass on. They had not gone far before they came to a creek, the bridge over which had been taken up, doubtless to cause wagons to stop, and then the owners could be assaulted and robbed at leisure. Our party repaired the bridge and came into town. But for their determination they would have been robbed and most probably roughly handled.

4th—WHARTON J. GREEN, OF WARREN.
5th—M. S. ROBINS, OF RANDOLPH.
6th—W. M. ROBBINS, OF ROWAN.
7th—L. M. McAFEE, OF CLEAVELAND.

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in seeking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

RADICALISM AND ITS PRACTICES! LET THE PEOPLE READ!!

The transcendent importance of having a Constitutional form of government, and a careful protection of the Constitution from any and all infractions, and a strict observance of all its provisions and all laws duly enacted under and in pursuance of those provisions, cannot be over estimated. The Constitution is the life of the government; it is the source, and the only source, of nationality and security for life, liberty and property. Without it, we would be in a state of anarchy, which must necessarily result in an absolute despotism of the most galling character. Strike down the Constitution, and the whole country and people are at the mercy of a terrible mob. The Constitution is every thing in government, and every good citizen, seeking his country's and his own personal good, and the safety of his family and property, ought not to hesitate to protect and defend it, as he would his life. It is a matter of regret that the business and laboring men are not more watchful of this life of their government and chartered rights; they are too prone to leave this most important of all earthly matters to vicious and corrupt public men, who prey upon the body politic. It is especially dangerous to the dearest rights of man, that the business and laboring men of all classes, rich and poor, great and small, alike, are not more wakeful, watchful and active in this day of public trouble and distress, when the life of free governments is at stake and the whole country is about to be engulphed in the most desolating ruin. The necessity that drove the plowman and mechanic to cease their daily labor and rush to the rescue of their country and liberty, when the British first assaulted the Colonies exists, in a great degree, this day. Our fathers then only hoped for a constitutional and free government; we have one, if we can save it from the assaults of domestic enemies, a class of men and politicians far more dangerous than a foreign foe,—men who profess to have the spirit of peace, while war is in their hearts, and they stab the Constitution and destroy the life of free government and all that is worth living for. Is this true? Alas! it is too true! We have in our midst, and all over the country, the deadliest and most corrupt enemies of our common country. These enemies are the more dangerous, because of the lethargy and lack of political vigilance of the people.

Whatever else the late war accomplished, one thing is certain: The Southern Confederacy absolutely failed; it were well, if it were as certain, that the life of the Constitution and Union were saved. This is not yet saved, and it remains to be seen whether it will be or not. If the war had terminated, as it ought to have done, under the Constitution, when the "rebellion" was suppressed in 1865, then all would have been well, and to-day we would have a happy, united and prosperous country.—This was the legitimate result of a constitutional and lawful termination of the war, but the Republican party in Congress, moved by party purposes, the worst passions of our nature, and a desire to gratify most malicious and revengeful feelings towards the people of the South, engendered by the war, refused to allow a peaceful and constitutional end of the war. This party, in Congress and out of it, ignored the Constitution, treated it with contempt, adopted what has been, and is now, termed the "Congressional mode of Reconstruction," which has no constitutional sanction. This "Congressional Reconstruction" this party has enforced, in direct violation of the Constitution, by the sword, which was intended for the protection of the Constitution and the Union under it. The friends of this scheme admit that it is unconstitutional; the leaders of the Radical party openly proclaim this fact, and the plain letter of the Constitution, the decisions of the Courts, the history of the government, and the unprejudiced opinions of statesmen of all parties, prove, beyond question and cavil, that it is revolutionary and subversive of the Constitution of the Union. To accomplish the ends of this Radical Reconstruction policy, the army and navy of the Union have been prostituted to the unlawful purposes of a military despotism throughout the whole South, in a time of peace; negro supremacy has been established by the sword; the right of trial by jury has been denied; habeas corpus, the greatest bulwark of liberty, has been abolished; the freedom of speech and the press has been suppressed; arbitrary and unlawful arrests have been made without number, and innocent persons have been confined in loathsome dungeons, in violation of the Constitution and common right; military commissions and secret Star-Chamber inquisitions have been substituted for the ordinary lawful courts of the country; the right of the people to be free from search and seizure of their persons and property has been disregarded in thousands of cases on record; the private papers and letters of the citizen have been seized without any lawful authority or specific charge; a regular system of spies and espionage has been established throughout the country; the Supreme Court has been divested of its lawful jurisdiction, and the President has been virtually stripped of his lawful power; and the extravagance and corruption practiced has exceeded anything known to the history of the world; the State governments of the Southern States have been demolished, by force, and Congress has undertaken to regulate the matter of suffrage for the States, and has disfranchised thousands of the best men in the country, while it has enfranchised the negro race, and virtually made the white race subject to it! A system of corruption, espionage and outrage, at the expense of tens of millions of dollars, has been practiced, which is without a parallel in the history of the world. For the truth of these facts, we appeal to the official records of the government, the journals of Congress, the decisions of the Courts of the Country, North and South, the history of the times, and the sad and humiliating experience and suffering of the people of this State and the whole South. These facts are sadly true, the people know and feel them to be true, and history will record them as true, to the eternal disgrace of the American name.

This ruinous policy is not the policy of the government. It does not purport to be. It is called the "Congressional or Radical Reconstruction Policy." It is without the sanction of the Constitution or the American people; it has only the sanction of the Radical party, in Congress and out of Congress, and is enforced in defiance of the Constitution in the way stated above. The Constitution, and every body in the whole land, except the Radicals, are against it.—And the Radical party has become so arrogant and presumptuous as to threaten that if the AMERICAN PEOPLE rise up in their strength to save the Constitution and the life of the Union, and displace this unlawful and violent Congressional Policy, it will make war again; yes, MAKE WAR against the Constitution and on those who uphold it!

Will the American people tolerate such war on the Constitution? Can they, dare they, tolerate it, if they would save the Union and themselves? If the Radical party may thus disregard the Constitution and enforce its power and purposes, by the sword, any other party may do the same thing, when it may, by accident or otherwise, come into power. Why may it not? And by this means, the country, the Union, the people, collectively and individually, are to be at the mercy and under the direction of a mob; the Constitution is gone; there is no chart; there is no Constitution, no law—nothing but anarchy; and the good and virtuous and the peaceful must cry out for and support the mob, or go down and be exterminated by another guillotine. And the inevitable consequence of all this, will be an absolute despotism.

Will the people—all, everybody,—heed these warnings! If they will, they may save themselves and their country, by rising up in their might to crush out and exterminate Radicalism and restore the Constitution of their country!

We have said that this Radical fury is not confined to Congress; it permeates the land. The vicious and corrupt, and those governed by malice and revenge, every where, give it their voice and help, and nowhere is this more lamentably true than in the Southern States, and especially in this State. This Radical party and its votaries care nothing for Constitutions or laws.—They are lawless and irresponsible. They violate the laws with the utmost indifference. What matters it to them? What have they to lose? Nothing; they have all to gain and nothing to lose. They embark in the most dangerous political experiments and introduce the most radical innovations on time honored institutions, careless of the consequences.

We will cite a few recent and notorious facts, to-morrow, which fully warrant what we have said, in reference, especially, to North Carolina.

LEGISLATIVE ADDRESS.

This document originally appeared in the Standard, signed by Tod. R. Caldwell, E-q., President of the Senate, by Mr. Joseph W. Holden, Speaker of the House, and by eighty-six of the Radical members, white and black, of the Senate and House, recently in session in this city. It has recently been printed in pamphlet form for more extensive circulation.

We have characterized this Address, heretofore, as a tissue of falsehoods,—as a vile, incendiary attempt to bring on civil strife in the State and a war of races between the Conservative whites and the negroes. For be it understood, that, in any conflict which the Radicals are laboring to bring on between the races, they intend to have it understood that the white Radicals will take part in such a conflict against their own race and color, and in favor of the blacks!

The most of the signers to this bad tempered, false and incendiary address belong to a class of men who would not hesitate to do anything to serve base party ends, and, hence, the public are not surprised.—But there are names attached to it, which cause great surprise. Such as the following: Todd R. Caldwell, S. C. Barnett, Wm. Barrow, E. W. Pou, B. R. Hinnant, J. S. Harrington, R. W. Lassiter, Chas. Winstead, Peter Wilson, W. B. Richardson and Jas. Sinclair. There can be no doubt, that a number of the names attached to the address were put there before the parties read it, and it is not certain that some of them have read it yet. Several of the names are not in full, and the names of both Chas. Winstead and Peter Wilson have their middle names omitted entire, which is evidence that they did not sign the paper. It is charged that the address was written by John Pool; others say, that the authorship is attributed, by those who ought to know, to John Pool and Judge Reade, jointly.—For the sake of humanity, and consistency, and law and order, we hope the rumor is false as to Judge Reade.

The members of the General Assembly start out with the assumption, that they are surrounded with embarrassments in the work of legislation, and "that the greatest possible danger overhangs the Government, and we believe that another war is certainly in the near future." There is no accounting for the intangible chimeras which float in men's brains or for the senseless alarms of men, but when sane men tell us they believe a thing, they ought surely to be able to give a reason for it. Whether the reasons given by these men are tangible and solid, or chimerical, remains to be seen. Where they obtained the following falsehood, or where it was forged, we are curious to know: "But instead of being united, we are bitterly divided, and a very large portion of the people, many of whom have been, and some of whom now are, in high positions of trust, declare that the State government, as at present organized, is illegal and void, and must be overthrown by force of arms, immediately after the election this fall." We have italicised the lying portion of the above statement, because we put upon it an emphatic denial. It is utterly without foundation. The people of North Carolina are divided, but who divided them? The address admits that a very large portion of the white people of the State, (for that must be its meaning,) are dissatisfied with the State government forced on them by the bayonets of Congress, and that this very large portion of the intelligence, virtue and worth of the State hold said government to be illegal and void. This much of the statement of the address is true. And is it not so, and ought not the body of the people to be dissatisfied? Ought any free people to be satisfied with any government forced upon them, in opposition to their Constitution, without any authority, by force of arms, against their will,—such as Congress has forced upon the Southern States? Ought there not to be division and discord, when a small portion of the white people of the Southern States, and those not the most intelligent or virtuous or substantial citizens, join in with Yankee adventurers, fortune hunters and with the ignorant, semi-barbarian hordes of negroes, to help Congress force such a government upon us, which places the property, the halls of legislation, the seats of justice and the charities of the State in the hands and under the control of ignorant, debased and bad men, who have no character for intelligence and virtue, and no property of their own to be taxed? Is it remarkable that the large body of white people in the South are dissatisfied, and intend to change this state of things, by the help of God, as soon as it can be done legitimately, fairly and peacefully? The whites of the South would be unworthy of freedom, unworthy sons of a noble ancestry, if they would submit quietly to such a fate.

But it is not true, that the white people, or rather the Democrats and Conservatives in North Carolina, have ever said, or even thought of it, "to overthrow the present State Government by force of arms, immediately after the election this fall." The author of the address knew he was penning a lie while he was writing it. He knew he must lie to make out his case; otherwise he should fail of his object, and he does not hesitate to do it.

The address charges the Conservatives with duplicity and bad faith, because they went into the late election as candidates for the offices of the Government, as if everything was valid! Monstrous. Does not every school boy in North Carolina know that the Democrats and Conservatives, from Currituck to Cherokee, went into the late canvass with a protest against the validity and force of the new Constitution and the new government forced upon them by Congress? Does not everybody know, (and the author of the address knew it,) that every Conservative and Democratic candidate in the State, in that election, labored for his own defeat, by endeavoring to defeat the Constitution? The author of the address has the hardihood to say, that "everything would have been valid, if they," the Conservatives, "had been elected"!! This he unblushingly says, when he knows if the Conservatives had been elected, every man of them would have been defeated, by the defeat of the new Constitution, by which, of course, the new government would have had no existence now. Those who were elected under the new order of things accept of the offices, of course, to keep out bad and incompetent men. They take the oaths of office properly, for the reason that they intend to obey the new Constitution and laws so long as they are in existence, and, by this course, put the lie on those who say they intend "to overthrow them by force of arms after the election." More anon.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

DOBSON, N. C., Sept. 9, 1868.

Editors Raleigh Sentinel:—For some time it has been reported in this county, that our late able and popular Senator, Col. A. C. Cowles, had deserted his old friends, and was out for Grant and Colfax. I am pleased to learn, from himself, that this report is altogether without any foundation. You will please publish the enclosed letter, as it will be exceedingly gratifying to his numerous friends in the counties, composing his old Senatorial district, to know, that he stands, where he always stood, battling for the Union and the Constitution of our fathers.

It may be supposed, in distant parts of the State, that as Judge Pearson lives in this section, his recent most extraordinary letter may influence some persons to vote for Grant and Colfax. This, I assure you, is altogether a mistake. He will not be able to carry a single vote in this county.—Indeed every intelligent man I have conversed with, is utterly astounded, and says that he has put in above the ford. I have just this moment conversed with an intelligent neighbor of his, who informs me that he has no influence in his own immediate neighborhood. He further states that, in a conversation with him, very recently, he asked him, why he thought the election of Seymour and Blair would produce war. His answer was that he thought so, for the reason that he (Seymour) would not enforce any unconstitutional law and hence war was obliged to come! For a Conservative to vote for Grant and Colfax is the greatest humbug of the times. I presume the Judge acts upon the principle that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. I suppose his salary has been fixed at $2,500, (I understand that before he left Raleigh, they promised to fix it at twice that sum.) That, for eight years, will amount to $20,000. This amount, these hard times, is not to be given up without a struggle.

I understand that some one of the rulers in this county has been advertising extensively, forewarning any and all persons from speaking disrespectfully of the government, or the authorities thereof; that, if they do, it will be at their peril.

The Rads had a meeting here on Saturday, 29th. ult., to appoint delegates to a Convention at High Point to nominate an Elector and a candidate for Congress.—They adjourned without doing anything, as there were but few present. The truth is, they do not know what to do. There seems to be great want of harmony in their ranks. They see, clearly, the hand writing on the wall; they are dividing on the negro question; in fact, nine-tenths of them are opposed to negro office holding, and boast, that by getting up petitions to the Governor, they prevented the appointment of any of them in this county. They cannot carry all the negro votes in the Presidential election, as they did in the recent election.

Surry county will do her whole duty.—We expect to carry the county by 400 majority.

Respectfully,

HAMPTONVILLE, YADKIN CO., N. C., Aug. 30, 1868.

COL. H. M. WAUGH—My Dear Sir:—I have just been informed that a report is being circulated in Yadkin County, "That I will support Grant and Colfax in the Presidential canvass." It is an infamous falsehood. Nothing could be more foreign to my intentions. Deprived as I am by the unconstitutional enactments of an unconstitutional Congress of the exercise of the privilege of a freeman, I yield to no one in the fervency of my support of the great principles of the Conservative and Democratic party as set forth in the platform of the late New York Convention, and shall give unqualifiedly to the nominees of that Convention (Messrs. Seymour and Blair) all the influence I can be able to exert.

I regard the coming election as involving our very existence as a free people. Should the radicals achieve the victory, even Republican form of government itself, in my opinion, is lost to the people of the United States. Having represented the people of Surry County two terms in the Senate of N. C., and feeling deeply grateful for the large majorities heretofore received at the hands of her people, I deem it my duty to say to any friends, that I may have there, whose votes would be likely to be influenced by my position, that no flimsy considerations of expediency or attempt at intimidation will prevent me from giving a zealous support to the representatives of Constitutional freedom, Messrs. Seymour and Blair.

With assurances of high respect,

I am very truly your ob't s'v't,

ANDREW C. COWLES.

Extract from a Letter Received by the Congressional Democratic Executive Committee:

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1868.

"Everything looks well here. The glorious work of Democracy goes bravely on. Its friends are vigilant, active and laborious. They feel that a nation's weal is at stake, and that every thing depends on the success of our everlasting principles. Set down the old Keystone for Seymour and Blair by at least 25,000 majority. The result will show that I am correct."

THE late Steward of the Insane Asylum of North Carolina, James H. Moore, was removed, it is said, because he would not make his contracts for wood and beef so as play into the hands of the Radicals. Since his removal, a prominent Radical has made a contract with the asylum to furnish 1,000 cords of wood for $4,000. Mr. Moore had already engaged a quantity for three dollars per cord. This is but one of the many evidences that the State government of North Carolina is a joint stock swindling association on the mutual aid plan.—Rich. Enquirer.

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a rocky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

A. CREECH,

Sept 15-tf Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, TREASURY DEPARTMENT, RALEIGH, Sept. 14, 1868.

To the Sheriffs of North Carolina:

Information has been received at this Department, that an opinion prevails that the time for settlement by you of the State taxes for the present year, has been prolonged to the 1st of January next.

I deem it my duty to inform you that no such extension has been made, and that you are bound by existing law to pay the State taxes, now due, into the Public Treasury prior to the 1st day of October next.

Unless payment shall be made, I am required, at the first Superior Court of Wake County, after the default shall have occurred, to move for judgment against delinquents for the full amount of state taxes due, deducting nothing for commissions or insolvents, but adding one thousand dollars penalty.

The next Superior Court of Wake County will begin on the 4th of October next and continue two weeks.

New Advertisements.—Alex. Creech announces himself early in the field, with a large, varied and splendid importation of Fall and Winter goods. His excellent taste and discrimination in the selection of his stock are proverbial, and he has exercised unusual care in his late purchases. Give him a call.

Ladies' Meeting.—A meeting of the Ladies subscribing to the Seymour and Blair Flag, shortly to be presented, are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. Seaton Gales, this (Tuesday) afternoon, at 5 o'clock.

Briggs' Family Grocery.—Our friend, W. G. Briggs, near the Yarbrough, has laid us under obligations for additional favors. His stock is first rate and he sells cheap.—Especially in the line of sugars, can we commend Mr. Briggs and his prices. Give him a call, and you'll not regret it.

Maj. R. W. York will speak at a Mass Meeting, to be held at Egypt, next Thursday, 17th inst., and at B. Y. Rogers' Store, on Saturday, the 19th.

Outrages by Negro Troops.—We learn (though we have not been able to ascertain the precise particulars) that an act of lawlessness and violence was committed by some negro troops in the Eastern part of the city, on Sunday evening. Two white wagoners, who were camped out in that quarter, were set upon and badly beaten by some of these negro soldiers. The facts we learn, were communicated by the Mayor to Gen. Miles, and we hope that he will promptly take steps to prevent the enactment of such scenes here as are transpiring in the unfortunate town of Goldsboro'.

G. H. Wilder, Esq.—We are gratified to learn that this gentleman will take the stump actively in behalf of the National Democratic nominees and the cause of Constitutional Union. We underatand that his recent speech at Rolesville was one of the most powerful and effective of the present campaign.

Mr. Wilder, very truthfully, told the colored people, at Rolesville, that it was the purpose of the carpet-baggers to bring on a war of races, but that, as soon as collision occurred, these same carpet-baggers would spring on the cars and check their baggage through to Boston or some where else!—That's the part they'll play in the storm which they seek to raise.

Public Speaking in Chatham.—Messrs. John J. Jackson and Henry A. London, Jr., will address their fellow-citizens at Brush Creek, on Friday, the 18th., and at Mt. Vernon, on Saturday, the 19th.

Messrs. John Manning, Jr., and Henry A. London, Jr., (Conservatives,) and John A. McDonald and B. I. Houze, ("Republicans,") will have a public discussion, at Haywood, on Saturday, the 26th. inst.

Riot in Milton.—In March last, the Commissioners of Milton held a meeting and issued an order requiring the streets to be worked. Last Wednesday was the day appointed to commence. Two thirds of the negroes and three white men refused to work or pay the fine. The law was executed, however, and most of the fines collected, though an infuriated mob of upwards of one hundred negroes threatened to tear down the Mayor's Office and sack the town. During the demonstrations, a random shot was fired by the rioters, which entered the window of Dr. Jno. Wilson, a venerable citizen of the town.

Among the rioters was Charles Walker, a negro, who had, only the day before, qualified as Magistrate for the town, by the appointment of "Gov." Holden! "Let us have peace!"

"Gov." Holden has appointed Stephens, the celebrated chicken-eater, Colonel of Melish in Caswell. "Now," says the Milton Chronicle, "let all chickendom look out for squalls. Squire Colonel Stephens, the man who robbed a hen roost in Rockingham—was prosecuted, and fled from the County—is afloat! with sword in hand, and a long feather stolen from an old speckled rooster's tail, stuck in his hat."

DETAILED MILITIA IN ROCKINGHAM.

It is stated, by the carpet-bag paper in this City, that application has been made for special Detailed Militia for Rockingham Co., and that it was made because one D. S. Ellington, Representative from that County, had been denied the liberty of expressing his convictions on the stump.

We are authorized to say that this latter statement, come from whom it may, is an unconditional and malicious falsehood. The statement has been exhibited to three members of the Board of Commissioners for the County, all Radicals, who aver that they never heard of such a thing before, but that, on the contrary, they are satisfied that the humblest negro in the county could utter his sentiments, publicly or privately, without the fear of interruption! Diligent enquiry has been made, and no person can be found who ever heard of the statement before.

It is believed that Ellington himself is the author of the statement. Judge Settle and Senator Lindsey know who Ellington is at home, and whether any man has any reason to be deterred from expressing his sentiments in Rockingham. Let them speak out.

We again charge that this whole statement is a falsehood, and that there is not a respectable white man or negro in Rockingham County who will not so pronounce it.

It is upon such pretexts, that Holden proposes to tax the people of the county for the support of an unconstitutional, militia mob, and to involve them in feuds and bloodshed. "Let us have Peace."

REGISTRATION.

An unaccountable misapprehension still prevails, in some quarters, as to the meaning of the recent Registration act of the Legislature. We learn that many are laboring under the erroneous impression that only those who have not heretofore registered will be required to do so. The last registration was conducted under the Reconstruction acts, and has no further operation.

Bear in mind that every man in North Carolina has to register again, previous to voting!

A Correspondent calls attention to a description of "carpet-baggers" in Halleck's poem of Connecticut. It is true to the life. Here it is:

"Apostates, who are meddling
With merchandise, pounds, shillings, pence and pedding,
Or wandering through Southern climates teaching
The A B C from Webster's spelling book;
Gallant and godly, making love and preaching,
And gaining by what they call hook and crook,
And what the moralists call overreaching,
A decent living. (southern men) look
Upon them with as favorable eyes
As Gabriel on the Devil in Paradise."

Mass Meeting at Littleton.—This meeting, which came off on Wednesday last, was a glorious success. A large crowd were collected, and able and eloquent speeches were made by Messrs. N. A. Goodin, Wm. H. Day, J. H. Moore, Esq., (late Steward of the Insane Asylum) and Capt. S. T. Williams. A bountiful barbecue was served. A number of blacks present enrolled their names as members of the Seymour and Blair Club. The arrangements for the occasions were mainly made under the auspices of Col. Wm. A. Johnson, as gallant a gentleman and as true a patriot as there is in the State.

Great Meeting at Ruffin, Rockingham Co.—At least three thousand persons, including a great many ladies, attended the glorious Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Ruffin, Rockingham County, on Thursday last. Before the sumptuous and bountiful dinner, which had been provided, the people were addressed by Geo. W. Coats, R. B. Watt, Esq, P. F. Duffy, Esq, and Col. P. H. Cowan, of Wilmington. All of them made capital speeches, and that of Col. Cowan is said to have been one of the finest of his many splendid efforts.

In the afternoon, Gov. Vance addressed the people at length and with tremendous power. It is sufficient to say that Vance spoke. Hon. J. M. Leach followed him briefly.

It was the most enthusiastic meeting ever held in that part of the State.

Great Mass meeting in Halifax on the 15th. of October. Many distinguished speakers have already consented to be in attendance.

More Lawlessness of Negro Troops. The last Goldsboro' Rough Notes contains more than a column of instances, in one day, of lawlessness, turbulence, fighting, and insult to the white citizens, on the part of the negro troops stationed in that town. A policeman was struck a heavy blow on the head; the freight train from Raleigh was attacked and the cars considerably damaged; a little white boy was knocked down on the side walk by five soldiers, without the least provocation; and pistol-shots were fired in the Court House, while it was in session,—the "loyal" Judge Thomas on the bench. The Court room was thrown into great confusion by this latter occurrence.—The Rough Notes says:

"The gentlemen composing the Bar and Jury and also the spectators present in Court were greatly startled, some of them rushing to the window; others went down stairs, the greatest excitement prevailed, and the Sheriff, yes, even his Honor, commanded "silence in Court," but all in vain. For a while the Court was completely intercepted. It appears that a crowd of lawless negro soldiers, who had been prowling about the Court-yard, either out of malice, or with intention to interrupt the Court, fired a pistol towards the Judge's window, whereupon the scoundrels took to their heels."

Wanted—Radical 'vagabonds,' idlers to go down South to preach "loyalty" and "rules" to the niggers. In return they will be sent to Congress—salary five thousand dollars a year and steallings. The only outfit necessary will be a carpet-bag, a paper collar and a fine tooth comb.

For the Sentinel.

TO THE VOTERS OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA!

I drop you a line from the East. I am a white man, always was a Union man until the government, after the war, got to be under such as Butler, Brownlow and Holden, and I address you to make an appeal which you, as good men, will heed.

Do you know, fellow-white men of the West, the condition in which the white men, women and children of the East are now placed? Many of you, I regret to say, have stood by, silent spectators, and seen your white fellows completely ruined in the adoption of the terrible Constitution that now rules North Carolina.

Soon the counties will be divided into townships and in each township there will be elected two Judges—these two Judges, with a Clerk from a Board, having the right to tax the people of their township. But this is not my point. In nearly every township in our section, the two Judges will be negroes. Look at Warren, Halifax, Northampton, Bertie, and other counties. Yes, Western friends, more than three-fourths of these Judges, in many counties, will be negroes. The negroes now rule us in these counties with absolute mastery.—The office of township Judge the negroes know very well is more important, more directly influential, more powerful, than any other. The Judge controls cases under two hundred dollars. Now that credit is nearly abolished, his jurisdiction will take in pretty much the whole business of society. He can try all criminal cases where the fine is under fifty dollars and the imprisonment under a month. This gives him control of ninety nine hundredths of the criminal cases. What a dreadful deposit of power!

Thirty black Judges are put in power in Halifax county, say. They are put in by the black vote. These thirty Judges look above them and they see Watts, who is on their side. Looking higher up, they see Pearson, Reade, Settle, Rodman and Dick. Oh! my poor country, I weep for thee!

The black majority puts the Judges in. They know that the same black majority can keep them in, receiving their heavy pay and wielding their vast power, or turn them out.

Pray tell me, my fellow men of Western North Carolina, did you think of these things, when, in the last election, you stayed from the polls? Did you then behold me, your brother, an intelligent, educated, honest white man, in a deadly fight with two brutal negroes, and yet stand aloof and not help me?

The negro Judge is elected as before said. A white Clerk is selected to get a writer. Artfully contrived! The Judge holds his Court and tries his cases. Woe be to the white man in his township, who does not bow down before his Judgeship. Have you thought of the ten thousand instances in which he can and will make himself "master of the situation?" He vis its a gentleman's house. It not taken in on equal terms, that man's land, crop, fruit, timber, stock, every thing, goes without redress. For he is the fountain of power and his supporters know his feelings.

Think, fellow men, of a negro Judge, a League man. Put a case: A negro is taking out of the field, secretly, corn which he makes on land rented on shares. The land owner prosecutes him before Judge Caesar Smith. The defendant, a League man, sees the Judge, also a League man, and they bargain together beforehand that the landowner shall be put down. So, in ten thousand thousand ways, villainy, meanness, thieving, corruption, niggerism and Holdenism abound.

Western brethren! I sicken when I think of our terrible struggle against the foregoing and you helped us not. You are not so cursed. But are you indifferent to OUR fate? Why did you stand by and see us bound hand and foot, and reduced to such terrible ruin? The contrivers of this ruin have artfully put off the full execution of the villainy until after the Presidential election, and the negroes all know it. But it is soon to be here, and then may a kind Providence help us!

"Who rule the South? Negroes and carpet baggers."

"We want no negro bureau."

"Remember the women of the South, our sisters."

From the Washington Express.

A POSTMASTER NOT TROOLY LOY'.

Hon. Montgomery Blair, chairman of the Congressional Democratic Executive Committee, this morning received the following significant letter from a postmaster of a Radical town in Massachusetts, enclosing a check for the amount which the Republican committee had assessed him:

——— Mass, Sep. 9, 1868.

Sir:—Enclosed please find for the Democratic National Committee check on Merchants' National Bank, New York, for seventy-two (72) dollars, being the amount assessed to me by the "Union Republican Congressional Committee," as per the enclosed notice.

I have made the check payable to you or your order on the receipt. Please acknowledge.

Hon. Montgomery Blair, Chairman, etc., Washington, D. C.

And are we yet alive?
And do we still rebel?
It is only by amazing grace
That we are out of hell.

And the Eufaula News responds:

It is "amazing grace," we know,
That keeps us out of there—
But Rads are gone'd so thick below,
There is no room to spare.

On January 1, 1865, when the Washington National Intelligencer changed proprietors, Mr. Thomas Donohue, who for fifty years had been the chief boor keepek, retired. Before leaving, however, he obtained the old sign-board of the office and had it made into a coffin for himself.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

A TERRIBLE EATHQUAKE.

Washington, Sept. 14, M.

Neither the State nor Navy Departments have official reports of the earthquake in South America, though its occurrence is fully confirmed by private letters.

The crew of the Fredonia, which was sunk, consisted of thirteen petty officers and fourteen hands. None of American birth.

At Irriquois, six hundred were drowned by a tidal wave. At Arequipa, the tower of the St. Cataline church was only the edifice left. Nearly all of the inmates of hospitals and prisons perished.

The course of the river has changed. Mount Misthi is discharging lava and mud. The river emits a sulphurous odor. No one dares go where the city was. The people are living in tents. At Pancarphatra, one hundred were crushed by falling houses. At Arica, an American barque, with guano, was swallowed.

At Taquis, one hundred and fifty lives, mostly children returning from school, were lost. The town of Shingra was swept away—only twenty out of five hundred inhabitants escaping.

The American Barque, Condor, was lost. The crew was saved.

At Chinca Island, there was first a hurricane, then the earthquake—then a tidal wave. Several English vessels were damaged. Over 200,000 persons are without shelter or bread.

Sherman calls for another cavalry regiment to fight the Indians.

War Department, }
Washington, Sept. 11, 1868. }

To Maj. Gen. Geo. H. Thomas,
Commanding Dep't of the Cumberland:

General:—Messrs. W. H. Weisner, T. A. Hamilton and J. H. Agro, a Committee appointed by the Legislature of Tennessee, have waited upon the President and represented to him the present condition of affairs in Tennessee and urged him to take steps to give protection to the law-abiding citizens of that State. A copy of the joint resolution under which the Committee was appointed, and of a written communication from the Committee to the President, are furnished herewith for your information. You will please report, without unnecessary delay, what force, in addition to that now under your command, will be required to give all necessary aid to the civil authorities of Tennessee to execute the laws, preserve the peace and protect the law-abiding citizens of that State.

The instructions heretofore given from this Department are deemed sufficient for no reorganization. It was the purpose of these instructions to confer upon you all the power which the laws allow, and it is the wish of the President that you exercise, within the limits of your lawful authority, full discretion in your action, to the end that, in any extent, the peace may be preserved.

Very respectfully your obt. servt.,
J. M. SCHOFIELD,
Sec. of War.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

Portland, Sept. 14, P. M.

The election for State officers took place to-day, after a canvass of extraordinary vigor, on the part of both parties.

Bangor gives Chamberlain, (Republican 2,067; Pillsbury (Democrat) 1,281. Republican gain five hundred and thirty.

Lewiston, Chamberlain 1,358; Pillsbury 670. Last year Chamberlain 791; Pillsbury 504. The Republican net gain two hundred and fifty-one.

Portland, Chamberlain 3,231; Pillsbury 2,310. Last year Chamberlain 2,046; Pillsbury 1,326. Republican net gain 906.

The vote in five cities foots up Chamberlain 8,454, Pillsbury 5,976. The same cities last year, gave Chamberlain 5,344; Pillsbury 3,582. The Republican majority 2,862; against last year 1,092.

Washington Sept. 14, P. M.

New York Sept. 14, P. M.

Reports from Maine come in slowly but seem to be conclusive. Nearly every town shows Republican gains over last year, when the majority was 11,000.

The following gains are among the most notable: Bangor 536, Lewiston 231, Portland 300, Bath 220, Hallowell 100, Rockland 80, Gaco 231. Wherever the Democrats gain, it is mostly small.

LATER.

Seventy-six towns give Chamberlain 25,228, Pillsbury 17,548. Last year same towns gave Chamberlain 18,187, Pillsbury 13,933. Republican gain 3,480.

UNIVERSAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

LOSSES PAID IN THIRTY DAYS.

No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and promised dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these Rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate
25	$21 19	$27 18	45	$53 18	$79 18
30	25 80	33 10	50	74 57	104 27

40	38 07	54 14	60	145 25	201 07

Example.—A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays 33.10 per annum on the 10 pay ment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215.50, his policy will be good for $1,215 50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES
OF THE
ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000.

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

57,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, &c., may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Values—or discontinue them; and in either case when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur before or in consequence of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

MISCELLANEOUS.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL, October 19th.

This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the "assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of its youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men, and of visiting Libraries and Collections in Science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.

The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological School has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical, ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges.—Number of students the past year, 434. VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

FOR 25 Years I was sorely afflicted with the Piles. After trying every remedy I could hear of, and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure, and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My Ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage, (fifteen cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."
